7. Plaintiff, by reference, incorporates the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.
8. Plaintiff Amormino began working for Defendant Light & Wonder in May of 2022.

9. Plaintiff Amormino worked full time at the Farmington Hills location of 22630 Haggerty Rd, Suite 100 Farmington Hills, MI 4335.
10. Defendant Light & Wonder is engaged in providing gambling division products and services, including but not limited to, slot machines, table games, and casino management systems.
11. Defendant is a publicly traded company subject to the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (“the Sarbanes-Oxley Act”), 18 USC 1514 et seq.
12. Plaintiff Amormino was employed with Defendant Light & Wonder as the Head of Casino Studio for North America.
13. Plaintiff’s responsibilities included generating reports on the company’s budget and capital assets.
14. A capital asset report is used to document a company’s capital gains and losses from investments.
15. On July 9, 2024, Defendant Light & Wonder’s Vice President of Operations, Dror Damchinsky, requested that Plaintiff alter the budget tracking file.
16. Plaintiff did not comply and stated that the request was illegal because the numbers would be fraudulent and inaccurate.
17. On July 24, 2024, Dror Damchinsky approached Plaintiff and inquired about how they were going to reach their goal, Plaintiff informed him that they “can’t just put numbers where we want.”

18. On July 31, 2024, Dror Damchinsky approached Plaintiff and requested that he generate different numbers for the company's capital asset reports, thereby attempting to present a false picture of the company's financial condition.
19. On July 31, 2024, Plaintiff informed Dror Damchinsky that what he requested was illegal because the numbers being reported to the government would be inaccurate and fraudulent, and he refused to comply with the request.

21. Dror Damchinsky stated to Plaintiff that he would just find someone else to do it.
22. On July 31, 2024, Plaintiff refused to comply with the unlawful instruction and complained to Vickie Huber, Head of Accounting, and Melissa Sly, Office Manager, about Dror Damchinsky's request to generate different numbers for the capital asset reports.
23. On July 31, 2021, the Head of Accounting, Vickie Huber, agreed with Plaintiff that Dror Damchinsky's request was illegal and unethical.

29. On August 12, 2024, Plaintiff was informed by Daniel O'Donoghue that he was placed on administrative leave.
30. On August 16, 2024, Plaintiff's employment was wrongfully terminated and retaliated against for making a complaint and participating in an investigation with OSHA, making a complaint to HR regarding fraudulent capital asset reports, and refusing to engage and violate public policy.
31. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Amormino was suspended and terminated because he participated in an OSHA investigation, made an OSHA complaint, made a complaint to HR regarding fraudulent capital asset reports, and refused to violate public policy.
32. Amormino's illegal termination is in violation of Michigan's Whistleblower's Protection Act and the Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act.

33. As a result of Defendant's actions and/or inactions, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer harm, including but not limited to:

- a. Stress;
- b. Humiliation;
- c. Emotional Damages;
- d. Non-economic Damages;
- e. Exemplary Damages;
- f. Economic Damages; and
- g. All other injuries to be discovered throughout discovery.

COUNT I – WRONGFUL TERMINATION IN VIOLATION OF THE WHISTLEBLOWER'S PROTECTION ACT

34. Plaintiff, by reference, incorporates the preceding paragraphs of his Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

35. Plaintiff filed a complaint to OSHA about Defendants' falsifying capital asset documents.

36. Defendants suspended and fired Plaintiff because of his reports and participation in an investigation of violations of law to OSHA, a public body.

37. The cause of Plaintiff's suspension and termination was due to his participation in an OSHA investigation and filing an OSHA complaint, which was intentional and in disregard for Plaintiff's constitutionally protected rights.

38. The retaliatory conduct of Defendants' and its agents is a violation of Michigan Whistleblower's Act, Mich. Comp Laws 15.362, Mich. State Ann 17.428(3).

39. As a direct and proximate result of the violation of Plaintiff's rights, Plaintiff has suffered irreparable injuries and damages including, but not limited to, loss of earnings and earning capacity, past and future lost earnings, mental and emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, anxiety, loss of ordinary pleasures of everyday life, and all other damages to be discovered through the course of litigation.

COUNT II – WRONGFUL DISCHARGE IN VIOLATION OF PUBLIC POLICY
(PUBLIC POLICY TORT)

40. Plaintiff, by reference, incorporates the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

41. During the course of his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff refused to acquiesce to violations of the law and circumvention of his job duties, as well as objected to illegal practices.

42. Light & Wonder is a publicly traded company that is regulated by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (“the Sarbanes-Oxley Act”), 18 USC 1519 et seq.

43. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act is a public policy that was enacted to prevent fraudulent accounting and financial practice at publicly traded companies.

44. Plaintiff refused to violate the Sarbanes-Oxley Act by refusing to falsify or manipulate capital asset reports when requested to do so on July 31, 2024.

45. Plaintiff refused to violate the following, including but not limited to:

Whoever knowingly alters, destroys, mutilates, conceals, covers up, falsifies, or makes a false entry in any record, document, tangible object with the intent to impede, obstruct, or influence the investigation or proper administration of any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States or any case filed under title 11, or in relation to or contemplation of any such matter or case, shall be fined under this article...”

18 U.S.C. §1519

46. On August 12, 2024, Plaintiff filed a complaint with OSHA to report Defendant’s request for Plaintiff to violate the law.

47. On August 12, 2024, Plaintiff was placed on administrative leave by Defendant.

48. On August 16, 2024, Plaintiff was wrongfully terminated by Defendant.

49. Adverse employment actions, including suspension and termination, of employment were taken against Plaintiff for refusing to violate the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and subsequently filing an OSHA complaint for Defendant’s illegal requests.

50. Plaintiff’s discipline was carried out in retaliation for Plaintiff refusing to illegally change Defendants numbers on the capital asset report, violate the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, and reporting Defendant’s illegal conduct to OSHA.

51. Plaintiff’s suspension and termination was the direct and proximate result of Plaintiff’s refusal to violate the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, and reporting Defendant’s illegal conduct to OSHA.

52. Plaintiff’s discipline violates the clearly established public policy of the State of Michigan, which states that an employer may not adversely alter an employee’s employment when the reason for termination was the disclosure of the violation of the law or refusal to violate the law.

53. The retaliatory conduct of Defendant and its agents is a violation of the Michigan Public Policy Act.

54. As a direct and proximate result of the violation of Plaintiff's rights, Plaintiff has suffered irreparable injuries and damages including, but not limited to, loss of earnings and earning capacity, past and future lost earnings, mental and emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, anxiety, loss of ordinary pleasures of everyday life, and all other damages to be discovered through the course of litigation.

55. Remedies provided under OSHA and MIOAHA are plainly inadequate. Stegall v Resource Technology Corp, ___NW3d___; 2024 Mich. LEXIS 1396, at *17 (July 22, 2024)

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Antonio Amormino respectfully requests this Honorable Court enter a judgment against Defendants in such an amount as the trier of fact shall deem fair and just, together with interest, costs and attorney fees, and for such other and further relief as this Honorable Court may deem appropriate in equity, fairness, and good conscience.
